ORDER

In the 1st read above, the Chairperson, NCPCR, New Delhi, has stated that as per the Directions of Hon'ble High Court of Delhi in W.P. (c ) No. 8889/2011 on 11.05.2012 , regarding constituting a Panel for inspection of the jails in Delhi for identification of probable juveniles in those Jails. The Panel Members of NCPCR has been carrying out visits to identify the probable juveniles lodged in various Jails in Delhi since March 2012 and sending the reports to Delhi State Legal Services Authority (DSLSA). Based on the recommendations of pane of Experts and further enquiries by the Courts, DSLSA has informed that they have detected 219 inmates, who are juveniles but were lodged in Delhi Jails due to wrong recording of age at the time of investigation. Further the juveniles, who should be governed by the Juvenile Justice Act might have been lodged in the Central /District Jails due to wrong recording of age at the time of investigation and there is a need to carry out inspections by a Panel of Experts to identify the probable juveniles lodged in Central/ District Jails in the State. Therefore, the State Government has been directed to review the position in the State, constituting the Panel of Lawyers and Eminent Social Activists to inspect Central/ District Jails in the State to identify the probable juveniles lodged therein. Based on the recommendations of such Panel of Experts, the cases of probable juveniles may be examined / verified from the available records / and or through medical test by the competent authority as per procedure prescribed under the Juvenile Justice Act.

2. In the reference 2nd read above, the Director, Juvenile Welfare, Correctional Services and Welfare of Street Children, (A.P.), Hyderabad has furnished the proposal, for constituting Panel of Experts (Lawyers and Eminent Social Activists) to inspect Central/ District Jails in the State to identify the probable juveniles lodged therein.
